Emmanuel Baptist, Toledo, Welcomes You!

Dear Friends,

June and I want to be the first to invite you to join us in Toledo for what we pray will prove to be a time of refreshing from the Lord. Please join us October 22-23, 2007 for the annual meeting of the Ohio Association of Regular Baptist Churches. This is a unique opportunity to renew old friendships and begin new ones with those who share your passion for God and the truth of His Word. Baptists are not only an independent people but an interdependent people, and so we trust you grab this opportunity to meet with others from the great state of Ohio.

Our keynote speaker this year is Dr. A. Charles Ware, President of Crossroads Bible College in Indianapolis, Indiana and Senior Pastor of Crossroads Bible Church. Our friend is a faithful servant of God and an able expositor. The theme for our time together is "Let's Just Praise the Lord." That seems a fabulous and fitting theme for our conference since the chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. Let us therefore pray expectantly that God will use His servant and His Word mightily to renew our sense of wonder and worship of Him. After all, God uses those who can be trusted with His glory.

The conference itself will also present you the opportunity to learn about other ministries that might be able to serve you in terms of education or evangelism. While the local church is a whole church, it is not the whole church, so why not come and investigate how you might partner with the OARBC or those who associate with us.

Mark October 22-23 on your calendar and plan to be with us in Toledo for a time of spiritual encouragement and enrichment. Invite others and come and enjoy some great singing and sermons. We at Emmanuel Baptist stand ready to serve you and our state fellowship for the glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom.

Serving Christ,

Pastor Philip DeCaray

On Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 pm and 3:15 pm, Oct. 23, messengers will have opportunity to interact with representatives from our three camps, Patmos, Scioto, and Skyview, as well as two other Ohio-based mission agencies, and schools.

The two mission agencies are Baptist Missionary Builders and Remnant Ministries and the two Ohio schools will be Baptist Bible Institute in Cleveland, and Tri-State Bible College in the southernmost part of our state, South Point, Ohio. Several of our churches work with these mission agencies and several of our pastors are graduates of these schools.

This is your opportunity to learn about these ministries and to connect with them as you and your church feel led. ∞

Two Retirements Celebrated!

Pray for these couples as they transition to future ministry opportunities in retirement.

Bob and Astrida Kuhn, retire after 22 years of ministry at Brown St. Baptist in Akron, Ohio. They came to Ohio from Jackson, Michigan where they had ministered for 18 years. A special meal and program was planned after the evening service on July 22. A quartet humored them with retirement woes. A group of 10 teens rehearsed the top ten sayings they had heard from Pastor Kuhn as well as the top ten spiritual truths they had learned. The young children presented Astrida with a series of fitting treats to match excursions or favors she had provided for them, i.e. a gas card, topping it off with long-stemmed flowers. The deacons closed by gathering around them for prayer. ∞

John and Carol Moosey, retire after 33 years of ministry at Whipple Avenue Baptist, Canton, Ohio. John and Carol previously served Ohio at Pleasant Hts. Baptist, East Liverpool. About 115 people enjoyed a special meal and program to celebrate with John and Carol on Friday, July 27. A time of music was presented by the young people who have come through Carol's Sunday School class. Several gifts were presented from the church, including a special cash gift, a replica of the church building, as well as letters from the Mayor and Police Chief of Canton. One special gift is a piece of framed carpet. When the church was recarpeted a year ago, an area of the old carpet behind the pulpit that bore John's footprints was preserved and framed for this special occasion. ∞

Pastor Honored!

On May 4, Ben Reed was honored as Pastor of the Year by the Alumni Association of Piedmont Baptist College in Winston-Salem, NC. Ben graduated from Piedmont in 1972. He has been in the pastoral ministry for 35 years. For the past 26 years he has been pastor of First Baptist Church in Niles, Ohio. Pictured are Dr. Charles Pettit, President of Piedmont Baptist College (left) and Pastor Ben Reed (right). ∞

A New Name For OWMU ?

Send name suggestions for the Ohio Women's Missionary Union to one of the officers before the Fall Meeting in October.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES FOR OWMU

Article 3:
Current: The object of the Union shall be to provide a fellowship for all Women's Societies of our parent organization of churches and promote the projects undertaken by same.

Proposed: The object of the organization shall be to provide a fellowship for all Women's Fellowships of our parent organization of churches and to promote a missionary project that joins us together.

Bylaw #6:
Current: No missionaries or representatives shall be on the program or receive money except they be of the approved agencies of the Ohio Regular Baptists.

Proposed: No missionaries or representatives shall be on the program or receive money except they be agencies whose doctrinal statement is in accordance with the OARBC.

Ladies of Ohio,

Missions is very much on my mind at this time of the year. I have just attended the Recognition Ceremony of the 2007 appointees for ABWE in Harrisburg, Pa. where my daughter Alison Reynolds and her husband Cliff were appointed to England. My foster daughter, Arwen Aldridge, will be returning from a 6 month short term mission trip to Portugal on August 1st. As we get her home, our church, Norton Baptist will send our Youth Pastor, Brent Lowe, and his wife, Tammy, and their children, to Portugal as career missionaries, leaving in September. I am very close to each of these, and this makes me more conscious of the needs of our missionaries and ministries. With all this on my mind and heart, I look forward to doing what I can to help all the ladies of Ohio to be "missions minded."

The OWMU officers look forward to the many Fall events. As we make plans and seek God's leadership, we ask for your continued prayer. Events begin with our Fall Ladies' meeting which is a part of the OARBC conference being held October 23rd at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Toledo. We will begin with a Luncheon for Statewide Leaders (area officers as well as the leaders of each local church's women's missionary fellowship). The Women's meeting will be in the afternoon and our speaker will be Becky McDonald with Women at Risk. We are joining with Becky and her ministry for this year's state project to help furnish a women's center in Burma. This center is to provide job training & spiritual training for women to protect them from slave trafficking which is very common in this part of the world. Becky has a passion for women of the veil and you will catch the vision of the project when you hear Becky present her ministry.

November 8th & 9th is the Fall Retreat at the Carlisle Inn in Sugarcreek. Peggy Walker will be our speaker this year, and Deb Searles will return to lead in Music. Information will be coming Mid-August. We anticipate another well attended retreat. If you don't receive the information, please call one of the officers and we will get it to you. See you there.

Fall Speaker

Becky McDonald is granddaughter of Dr. Robert T. Ketcham who encouraged the start of the very first state women's missionary meeting at the same place on the same date 76 years ago—Oct. 23, 1929 at Emmanuel Baptist, Toledo. Becky will speak twice to the ladies at the OARBC Fall Conference — for the First Ladies' Tea at Noon on Monday and OWMU meeting on Tuesday at 2:00, Oct. 23, 2007. ∞

SCIOTO HILLS

What an exciting summer we have experienced here at Scioto Hills Christian Camp. We are pleased to report a 17% increase in camper numbers as well as a steady stream of salvation decisions each week. Praise the Lord for an incredible summer staff. 54 of the finest young adults from your churches and the Midwest are again having a major impact on our campers.

Our promotional efforts have paid important dividends. Scioto Hills was presented in 37 different venues since last October. We trust God will continue to give us opportunities and fill our travel calendar again this year.

We are also amazed by the many remodeling projects we were able to complete in 5 months and the number of volunteers who helped make it possible. You can visit our website or just come down for a visit to see the improvements.

Our fall schedule is filling up but we have reserved September 7-9th to re-introduce our own Ladies Retreat. "Rejuvenate" has purposefully been designed for women by our female staff to refresh and "pamper". Cheryl Fawcett, an Ohio favorite, will be speaking and the retreat will feature massage therapy, a chocolate bar, Saturday brunch and lots of "feminine touches" that will leave our guests rejuvenated. See our website or contact your local church for details. Exciting things are happening in the hills of southern Ohio and some of the old time favorites like our Tipi Village, Family Camp and Senior Ministries are resurfacing with some new features. We hope to see you at camp some day soon. ∞

Real World University

On Friday, March 30, a group of nearly 80 teens and youth leaders experienced real faith in the real world. The teens and youth leaders met at Maranatha Baptist Church in Columbus to hear a salvation presentation from Nathan Davis, youth pastor from Byesville. From there the group boarded two chartered buses to visit the Columbus Police Academy, the Columbus Zoo, and the Ohio State University. At each stop Christian professionals shared their testimonies and how they lived out their faith in their respective vocations. The teens heard from two veteran police officers, a registered nurse of 40 years, a veterinarian, and a former running back for the Ohio State Buckeyes. The youth returned for a closing session of worship and awarding of prizes.

This event was planned by youth pastors, Ken Lorow, Maranatha Baptist, Cols., Dan Hunt, Memorial Baptist, Cols., and Lee Roberts, Calvary Baptist, Bellefontaine. Based on the morning passage from Col. 1:9-20, the teens were challenged to recognize the exclusive claims of Christ and the difference between knowing about Him and knowing Him. ∞
